Name of Sport/Club		FORENSICS
What levels of this sport/club are there?		Var	sity	Jur	nior Va	arsity	Fre	eshman	WFCA S
		,	✓						CHES. ASSOCIET
Advisor/Contac	sity	 	Mrs. Melissa Stolaski/Mr. Adam Schneider
Advisor/Contact E-mail Address-Assistant Melissa.stolaski@slingerschools.org Adam.schneider@slingerschools.org
Description of sport/club	Forensics is a speech team that competes for both individual and team awards. Areas of speaking range from the interpretative (storytelling, prose, poetry, oral interpretation, group interpretation, play acting and due interpretation) to public
When does this sport/club begin? The forensics season begins with try-outs in late Octoberearly November and ends with the State Tournament in early-April.
What is the length of this activity? Late-October to early April; practices are held 1-2 times week; the National Forensics Tournament is held Memo Day Weekend
Are try-outs required? Yes
Are there cuts or limits to the number of participants? Cuts are possible
What are the membersh qualifications?			hip Students must be in good academic standing, abide by the activity code, have a team-oriented attitude, and have a desire to practice for and compete in speech competitions. Public speaking abilities, time and commitment is good to have.
List the main events/activities significant functions				Janua neld th opport	approximately 6 tournaments are held most Saturdays in anuary, February, and March. The state tournament in is eld the first weekend in April. Students are given the pportunity to tryout for the National Forensics Tournament; his tournament is held Memorial Day.
Are there any extra required to d bag lunch or					may be available at a cost to the participant. Students are dress in business/business casual attire for competition. A r money for lunch is needed for each competition. ipation fee is required.
Any other comments Failure to notify coach of competition conflict before the registration deadline could result in the participant being removed from the team										