

Cabinetmaking II

½ Credit

Semester

12

Advanced Cabinetmaking is a course that allows students, using all the skills developed in prior courses, to design, plan, and build a project of their choice. The project is limited only by the students' ability, motivation, and/or cost. A product of high quality and thoughtful planning is the goal of this course.

Prerequisite: A "C" or better in Cabinetmaking I or instructor consent required