

Power Equipment Technology

½ Credit

Semester

10,11,12

Power Equipment Technology is designed to familiarize the student with the basic operating principles and theories of two and four-cycle engines. At the completion of the course, the student will have learned the proper diagnostic and repair procedures used in the small engine industry. During the course the student will disassemble, repair, and reassemble various engines according to standard and recommended procedures.

