

254 SCHOOL BUILDING ADMINISTRATION

Building principals shall be responsible for the planning, operation, and supervision of all programs, activities, and personnel in their assigned building(s). They are also responsible for the planning, operation and supervision of any assigned district-wide programs and may also be responsible for any personnel associated with such assignments.

Principals shall maintain a close liaison with the district administrator with timely reports on the operation of their building(s) and any district-wide responsibilities. Changes in operation procedures, rules, and regulations must have the approval of the district administrator.
