

If authorized by the school board, excess cost student accident insurance program providing limited coverage at no cost to parents may be made available to parents.

The program is supplemental coverage that provides benefits for medical expenses not covered by the individual's insurance company. Such protection will cover the student while at school and when engaged in any school-sponsored activities, including interscholastic athletics.

Legal References:

Cross References:

Adoption Date: 12/21/2015