

AUTHORIZED USE OF SCHOOL EQUIPMENT AND MATERIALS

Policy 742

Page 1 of 1

No school equipment may be used off campus for other than school purposes. The Board shall permit use of school equipment on campus by non-school groups or individuals using school facilities in accordance with Board Policy 830-Rule. The Board shall permit use of equipment to students off campus when the equipment or materials are used in connection with their studies or extracurricular activities.

Equipment and materials may be loaned under the above guidelines or at the discretion of the district administrator or his/her designee.

Proper controls shall be established to assume the user's responsibility for and return of all equipment and materials.
