

Students MUST adhere to the Academic Honesty Policy of the World Language Department.

This includes but it is not limited to:

- Copying or asking others for answers
- Allowing others to copy your work or giving answers to others
- Using an electronic or on-line translator
- Submitting another's work as your own (work of a native speaker, a relative or another student)
- Providing or accepting information regarding specific test questions
- Copying a resource word-for-word.

World Language Student Contract 2013-2014

I agree to follow the Academic Honesty Policy of the World Language Department. Failing to do so will result in a zero for my grade, along with a referral and a phone call or e-mail home.

We have read the Procedures & Expectations for class and the World Language Department, and we understand them and their consequences.
