

CASSI SEUBERT

Athlete

Cassi Haines (Seubert) excelled in basketball, volleyball, and track while remaining on the high honor roll. She played a key role on many conference championship teams in all three sports. While participating in these sports she set a number of records and earned a number of other awards some of which include:

Basketball

Back-to-back-to-back basketball conference champs 97-00

Individual Season Records

Most points: 540 pts	1999-2000
Highest Average: 23.4 ppg	1999-2000
Most Field Goals: 190	1999-2000
Most Free Throws: 134	1999-2000
3 pt field goal%: 53%	1999-2000

Individual Game Records

Most points game: 38 pts	1999-2000
Most field goals: 16	1998-1999

Individual Career Records

Most Points: 1246 pts	1996-2000
Highest Average: 17.3 ppg	1996-2000
Most 3 pt field goals: 58	1996-2000
Most Field Goals: 463	1996-2000
Most Free Throws: 262	1996-2000

Unanimous Parkland Conference Player of the Year two years in a row 98-00

1st team all-conference 3 years in a row 97-00

All-Washington County 1st team 3 years 97-00

Three time Washington County Player of the Year 97-00

Twice Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Player of the Week

Wisconsin Basketball Players Association All-Star 2000

Track

State in 4x800m and 4x400m relays (4th and 6th place) 1998

State in 4x800m relay (3rd place) 2000

Part of Parkland Conference Champion in Indoor, Relay, and Outdoor in 1998 and 2000

Volleyball

Parkland Conference Champions 3 years in a row 1997-2000

2nd Team All-Conference 1998

1st Team All-Conference 1999 and 2000

Team MVP 2000

Graduated 2000