Athlete

A 4-year varsity letter winner and 3x team MVP in wrestling, Joey Potter amassed nearly 30 tournament championships, numerous outstanding wrestler awards, and many other individual achievements and records along the way to a 156-8 career varsity mark for the Owls. Excelling both on the mat and in the classroom, Potter was ranked #1 at his weight class and simultaneously named to the 1st Team Academic All-State team with a 3.91 GPA by Crossface Magazine during the 1999/2000 season. He is Slinger's only 4x Conference, Regional, and Sectional champion, and was named Parkland Conference Player of the Year in 2001.

A 4x state qualifier and 3x place winner, Potter took a 41-0 record into the Division I 125lb state finals his senior year, where he fell short of his ultimate goal of winning a state championship, losing by decision to defending champ, Travis Tritz, of Wisconsin Rapids.

Although opportunities were available, Potter chose to walk away from wrestling after his high school career came to a close. He went on to obtain a Bachelor's Degree in Finance from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, and currently works in the Commercial Real Estate Industry. He resides in the Campbellsport area with his wife and sons.

Graduated 2002
